For “comfort” travel at affordable prices, make it Lancaster County PA

A connection to simpler times and timeless traditions driving today’s travel choices

(Lancaster, PA) With many consumers tightening their budgets and unsure of their economic future, the appeal of comfort and value in making travel plans is stronger than ever, and Lancaster County – in the heart of Pennsylvania Dutch Country – is a natural getaway choice.

Moreover, our prime Mid-Atlantic location means visitors won’t break the bank getting here, especially those auto travelers who want to get somewhere on one tank of gas. In fact, Forbes magazine just named Lancaster as one of the Ten Best American Towns to Visit by Car.

As folks face uncertain times, they’re looking for enjoyment in simple things and finding comfort from timeless traditions, a combination that Lancaster has long specialized in with:

- ultimate comfort foods like whoopie pies and other PA Dutch eats at family-style dining;
- hand-crafted Amish furniture made the old-fashioned way at places like Glen Brook Woodcraft;
- the childhood firsts experienced at Dutch Wonderland Family Amusement Park;
- the calming pace of a buggy ride, or a grand yet serene trip through Amish farmlands on the Strasburg Rail Road;
- a chance to get to know your innkeeper host at one of our diverse B&Bs, the second largest such community in the East; and
- follow-your-nose driving through our 2700 miles of backroads, 29 historic covered bridges, and quaint towns & villages.

Lancaster County is also a tremendous value destination, starting with our Hot Summer Savings that feature 25% discounts at popular area attractions, accessible with a just an overnight stay.

Then add in great individual offers, like the new Strasburg Rail Road – Railroad Museum of PA combo pass, a family four-pack of Lancaster Barnstormer baseball tickets for less than $25, or the package deals on things to see and do at the Amish Experience.

Plus, we have hotel rooms for just \$99 more or less, and plenty of affordable campground space.

It’s no wonder that tourism dollars go about 10% further in Lancaster than they do in D.C., Philadelphia, or Boston, and a whopping 35% further than in New York City.

Lancaster County is a wonderful blend of urban style and rural splendor, and the PA Dutch Convention & Visitors Bureau is dedicated to promoting its many rich cultures, from the Amish to the arts. Travelers can take in our vibrant downtown city life – featuring galleries, great dining, specialty shops, and live music – or explore some of the surrounding towns and villages to get a sampling of the heritage, food, craftsmanship, and hands-on activities for which Lancaster is famous.
